

Humanities Teacher (KS3 and KS4)

Part time: Required from January 2026 (November/December start considered)

St John's is a co-educational Independent School for pupils aged between 2 and 16 years. We are proud of our educational provision and offer you the opportunity to join our successful school.

We are looking for a strong candidate to join our successful Humanities department working on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, teaching mostly Religious Studies and some Sociology to our pupils in KS3 and KS4. This is a temporary role for the rest of the academic year, but it is likely that there will be a new role within the Humanities department from September 2026, most likely involving teaching Geography and RS. Please feel free to contact us to discuss this further.

The successful candidate must:

- Be passionate about their subjects and convey this passion with our pupils through their lessons and extra-curricular provision.
- Be an excellent classroom practitioner who can engage and inspire pupils to achieve success.
- Be enthusiastic, a team player, self-motivated and innovative.
- Be a positive role model for our pupils.
- Have excellent communication skills with the ability to enthuse and motivate.
- Be looking for an opportunity to make an impact and share their ideas for further success.

Please see the full job description for further details.

We offer:

- The chance to be part of a supportive and friendly team.
- Fantastic working environment where staff are valued.
- Opportunities to access CPD to develop your role further.
- Polite and hard-working pupils taught in small classes.
- Our school terms are shorter than those of maintained schools.
- A school lunch is provided.

If you wish to apply for the role, please complete our application form which can be found on the St John's School website: www.stjohnsschool.net.

Please contact a.fleming@stjohnsschool.net if you have any questions or wish to discuss the role further.
